

PRAY for the IOWA JUDICIAL BRANCH

In 1 Timothy 2, the Bible commands us to pray for those who are in authority. “I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people— for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.”

~ 1 Timothy 2:1-2.

Throughout the Bible, government was ruled by kings and emperors. Today, the king is no longer one person, but many persons. In the Iowa government, like the U.S. government, we took the power of the king and divided it into three branches (legislative, executive, and judicial). During the 2019 legislative session, we are going to lift up each of the branches of government and their members in prayer.

For the month of February, we are going to be praying for the Judicial Branch. The Judicial Branch is lead by the Iowa Supreme Court, which is the highest court in Iowa. Seven justices sit on the Iowa Supreme Court. We encourage you to join us in lifting up these 7 governing authorities.

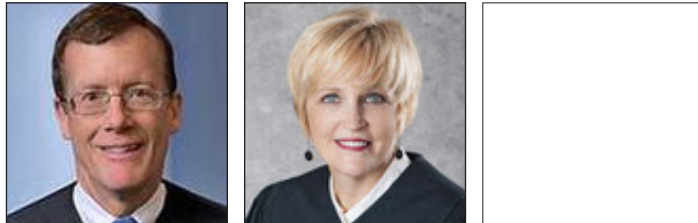

Chief Justice
Mark S. Cady

Justice
David Wiggins

Justice
Brent R. Appel

Justice Thomas
D. Waterman

Justice Edward
R. Mansfield

Justice
Susan Christensen

(open seat)

Prayer requests:

1. Father, thank You for our government and its judiciary system. We ask that they would be people of integrity and honesty who humble themselves before You, Sovereign Lord, and seek Your will.
2. Pray our judges will seek wisdom from the Lord as they weigh decisions, modeled by King Solomon. “Now grant me wisdom and knowledge so that I may lead these people, for who can judge this great people of Yours?” ~ 2 Chronicles 1:10.
3. Pray that judges will factor in both the word and heart of the law.
4. Pray for our judges to grow closer to Christ.

PRAY for the IOWA JUDICIAL BRANCH

In 1 Timothy 2, the Bible commands us to pray for those who are in authority. “I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people— for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.”

~ 1 Timothy 2:1-2.

Throughout the Bible, government was ruled by kings and emperors. Today, the king is no longer one person, but many persons. In the Iowa government, like the U.S. government, we took the power of the king and divided it into three branches (legislative, executive, and judicial). During the 2019 legislative session, we are going to lift up each of the branches of government and their members in prayer.

For the month of February, we are going to be praying for the Judicial Branch. The Judicial Branch is lead by the Iowa Supreme Court, which is the highest court in Iowa. Seven justices sit on the Iowa Supreme Court. We encourage you to join us in lifting up these 7 governing authorities.

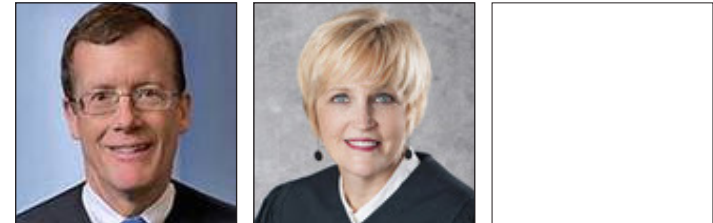

Chief Justice
Mark S. Cady

Justice
David Wiggins

Justice
Brent R. Appel

Justice Thomas
D. Waterman

Justice Edward
R. Mansfield

Justice
Susan Christensen

(open seat)

Prayer requests:

1. Father, thank You for our government and its judiciary system. We ask that they would be people of integrity and honesty who humble themselves before You, Sovereign Lord, and seek Your will.
2. Pray our judges will seek wisdom from the Lord as they weigh decisions, modeled by King Solomon. “Now grant me wisdom and knowledge so that I may lead these people, for who can judge this great people of Yours?” ~ 2 Chronicles 1:10.
3. Pray that judges will factor in both the word and heart of the law.
4. Pray for our judges to grow closer to Christ.